THE VISITORS

ST. LAWRENCE SAINTS

Led by coach Bernie McKinnon, the Saints have improved tremendously over the past year. They now rank 5th in the powerful Eastern Collegiate Athletic Association with a 7-3 overall record. Top players with the Saints are forward Tom Faludi, defenseman Peter Blair and goaltender Harry Aikens.

UNIVERSITY OF WATERLOO WARRIORS

Coach Bob McKillop led his Warriors to the National title in 1974 beating the Georgians in the Finals at Toronto. Last season the Warriors were again one of Canada's best club's but were eliminated during Ontario Playoff action. This season the Warriors have been struggling but with All-Star goaltender Jake Dupuis and experienced forwards like Mike Longpre the Warriors can turn the tables on any club in Canada.

TROIS RIVIERES PATRIOTES

Pierre Lacoste's charges were ranked 1st in Canada for nearly a month last year. This season they have not been ranked thus far thanks to the Stingers who hold (4-1) (8-1) and (8-3) victories over the Patriotes. However, Trois Rivieres won the Sir George Tourney last season and hold victories over University of Toronto Blues and the York Yeomen this season. They are led by All-Star goaltender Pierre Benoit, former pros Gary Brown and Alain Balthazard and Q.U.A.A. leading scorer Jean Lamoureux.

THE STINGERS

Perhaps the most powerful team to ever represent Quebec, the Stingers currently boast a 23-2-1 record and 2nd spot in the National Rankings. The nucleus of the team is made up of last year's national semi-finalists - the Loyola Warriors (32-9-3). In the past two years the Warriors and Stingers have captured four tournament championships: Moncton twice, the North Country, and the 1974 Laurentian Tourney. The Stingers boast the largest team in Canadian Collegiate hockey with an average weight of 185 lbs. They include two former all-Canadians in the line-up - Mark Shewchuk and Dave Wilson. The line-up also includes three former professionals - John Harris, Dave Boyd and Mark Shewchuk. Former Major Junior A players in the Stingers' line-up are Gaetan Potvin, Montreal; Michel Blais, Kingston; Claude Campeau, Hull; Dave Boyd, Hull; John Harris, Toronto; Dave Wilson, Toronto; Andy Kane, Montreal; Mike Relihan, Rosemount. The smallest member of the Stingers is Ken Sinclair at 155 lbs. He is also the only player to make the Stingers line-up directly from High School hockey.

CANADIAN COLLEGE HOCKEY

College hockey made a giant stride in 1963 with the creation of a National Collegiate Hockey Championship. Since that time however, very little has occurred to bring Collegiate hockey to the level it rightfully deserves in Canadian Amateur Sport. Many experts believe Collegiate hockey is the best amateur hockey in Canada. Unfortunately the best can only describe the top college teams. Perennial powerhouses include St. Mary's and Moncton in the East; Sir George and Loyola - now Concordia and Trois Rivieres in Quebec; Toronto, Waterloo, York and Laurentian in Ontario; Alberta and U.B.C. in the West.

MAJOR LEAGUE NEXT

For several years a major College conference has been proposed. The C.I.A.U. has not yet seen fit to sanction this concept of the best from across Canada playing each other. But it seems now that most Athletic Directors are ready for this type of tier system. Right now the top schools are playing each other in non-conference and tournament competition not formally recognized by the C.I.A.U. Concordia to date has played 15 non-conference games winning 13 and losing only 2. We may see a major conference as early as next season. This would be the next giant step for Collegiate hockey in Canada.
